Mr. Salem Maatugh,

Dear Maatugh,

We are sorry you disappeared recently from the course. Most unfortunate! However as your friends will have told you, we will attend to your dissertation as soon as we can, probably at the beginning of June. Lawrie and I will have another look at it and try to get a reasonable commentary on it. It would be extremely helpful if you could, therefore, deal with any of our questions or suggestions as quickly as possible and submit by September 1984. Your English is probably the biggest problem. I have agreed with Lawrie that we should do a standard correction on, say, two pages to demonstrate to you the kind of re-writing that is necessary. I suggest that you might well need some help with the English so as soon as I can get myself clear of current work towards the examinations, I will send you your dissertation marked up with comments.

I hope your wife is keeping well and the children are all thriving.

Yours sincerely,

ROBERT G. SMART
